When should I arrive for a performance?

The venue will open one hour before the performance start time and we suggest you try to arrive at least 30 minutes before the start of the performance to allow time to buy a programme and enjoy a drink in our bar. The theatre doors usually open 20 minutes before a show starts.

I have booked a Pre-Show Dining package, what time should I arrive?

For afternoon tea bookings or pre-show packages in our Neverland Lounge, please arrive at the time indicated on your booking confirmation.

What should I do if I'm late?

We understand that arriving late is sometimes unavoidable. Upon arrival please make yourself known to a member of staff who will advise you when to enter the theatre. If we can get you into the theatre during a late comer point, please be aware that the theatre will be in darkness and an usher will escort you to your seat by torchlight.

What if I can't make it?

Should you be unable to attend the performance you have booked no refund will be given and tickets cannot be transferred to an alternative date. Please be aware that this policy applies in all circumstances, including inclement weather which may prevent you from travelling to the venue.

Do you provide booster seats for children?

Booster seats are not available, but you may bring your own.

Where can I buy a programme or show merchandise?

Programmes and any show merchandise will be available to purchase in the bar areas before each performance.

Is there a cloakroom?

Yes, our cloakroom is located in the atrium. This is open before and after every show. Please note that for security reasons, we may conduct random bag searches once the theatre is open. If your bag is too large, we may ask you to put it in the cloakroom.

Where are the toilets situated?

There are toilets in the atrium and on the first and second floors. The main toilets can become busy before a show and during the intervals but toilets on other levels may well be quieter so it's worth checking. There are also accessible toilets on every level of the building and a changing places toilet is located on the ground floor.

Is there a dress code?

No, there is no dress code.

How should I behave during the performance?

We want everyone to be able to enjoy the performance so please respect those around you. Talking, singing, humming and clapping can be distracting for other people if done at an inappropriate moment. Clapping should generally be saved for between acts or sets. Some productions have encore pieces, and this is the time when people can clap and sing along as the actual performance has finished.

During the show, coming and going to and from your seats should be avoided unless it's in an emergency. Our ushers will be able to help you with any questions or issues that you may have.

Can I eat in the theatre?

While we do allow some food items and soft drinks into the theatre, eating during the show may disturb others so we ask you do this before or after the show.

Can I take photographs and video footage?

No, in line with our policy photography and filming is not permitted in the theatre once a show has started out of respect to the performers.

If you want to take professional photography or film for any reason, then you must seek prior written permission. Please contact us by email at boxoffice@iccwales.com.

How do I report lost property?

Please email businesscentre@iccwales.com telling us what you've lost and where. We will get back to you with any information we have.
